My Inner Feelings

What was achieved in the past is more than history - it is a call for our commitment to carry the torch and continue the race. We must continue to hold the torch of hope. I strongly believe that a college is not just an educational institute, it is also a social institute. In the coming years the challenges in front of us will be more complex. They will demand not only commitment but also the will to move forward. Before next step forward we need to rethink over the question "What are the responsibilities of a college to the students, to the society and to the nation? We need to put our college in order; we need to give our best to the college. Our committed and responsible service to the college itself is our greatest service to students. I believe that loving ones work and workplace truly can itself be a service to the society. I hope that with our present workforce we will be able to walk in the right track to fulfil our institutional mission, vision and objectives. We are proud of our team of dedicated teachers who mentor students both within and outside the classroom. Even as Lakhimpur Girls' College remains one of the most sought after colleges in Dibrugarh University, we are unwilling to rest on our laurels and success stories. Rather, we will strive constantly to make our college a scat of learning al par with the best educational institutions in the country.

Lakhimpur Girls' College, established on the 16th August, 1972, is the first and foremost seat of higher education for women in the entire north bank of the mighty Brahmaputra in upper Assam. A brainchild of the higher education loving public of North Lakhimpur town of Assam under the initiative of the teachers of the North Lakhimpur Govt. Girls' High School, it was originally named as North Lakhimpur Girls' College. However, it was rechristened on 17th May, 1975 as Lakhimpur Girls' College representing its desire to offer higher education for women. It has been maintaining consistently high academic standard since its inception and produced women who have excelled in various fields.

The College was recognized under section 2 (f) on 30.12.1978 and u/s 12 (A) on 05.07.1984. Permanent affiliation for both the Arts and Science Streams was accorded on 12th September, 2007 by Dibrugarh University. It was brought under provincialised system by Govt. of Assam in December, 2005 paving the way for direct control of the state government in matters of service rules of the employees. The college also introduced distance education from the 2008-09 session with degree, diploma and certificate courses in various subjects under K. K. Handiqui State Open University. The various career oriented courses are functioning well. In the field of research, the college has been maintaining a good research culture within the campus.

The present day college has an infrastructure built on a green campus. Some of the facilities include a computerized air conditioned central library well stocked with books and journals, well equipped laboratories in different academic departments, and a vibrant career counseling cell. In addition to these facilities, there is also a guest room, a health center, a yoga center, a well equipped gymnasium hall, a hostel, a quarter for hostel superintendent, an indoor stadium, a well-equipped conference hall, a day-care facility and a well maintained canteen. A new Arts building has recently been constructed with generous funding from the Govt. of Assam. All the academic departments, centers and the college office are connected with round the clock internet connectivity. Post Graduate classes in Home Science has been introduced since August, 2015. Lakhimpur Girls' College is the only college (Except Assam Agricultural University, Jorhat) in the entire North East India for Post Graduate studies in Home Science. ❑ Selection of candidates

For B.A./B.Sc. 1st Semester course:

Students will be admitted to B.A./B.Sc. 1st Semester strictly on merit basis either in Major course or in General course. The merit list for General course will be prepared on the basis of the total marks obtained in the first five subjects offered in H.S. Examination. For Major course, a separate merit list will be prepared for each major subject from the applicants in order of merit, the criteria being the Credit point. A candidate can offer three options for major and credit points for each option need to be calculated in the prescribed form. Details of how to calculate credit point are given below

CREDIT POINT CALCULATION

A. For B.Sc.

Percentage (%) of marks secured by a candidate at the HS or equivalent examination in English or MIL/Alt. English whichever is more + % of Marks in 1st Elective + % of marks in 2nd Elective + % of marks in 3rd Elective (only best 3 Electives) will be treated as "Total Marks" for the purpose of calculating credit point. While computing total marks on the basis of the best 3 electives, subjects like Physical Education will not be taken into account as such subjects have no bearing on the B.A. & B.Sc. courses offered in this college.

After calculating 'Total Marks' as above % of Marks of the subject in which the candidate desires to offer Core will be added. The marks so arrived at will be treated as "Credit Point" for the purpose of preparing the merit list of candidates against each Core subject.

Example 1 : Say, a candidate has secured the following marks in HS Examination out of 100 in each subject and she has shown first preference for Chemistry Core.

Eng	MIL/Alt. Eng	Chem	Phy	Maths	Bio	Grand Total
65	75	75	80	85	70	380
Total marks will be		75+75+80+85			= 315	Credit Point for
Chemistry Core will be		315+75			= 390

Note : Where the candidate has not offered the subject in HS examination in which she desires Major (only in case of those subjects which are allowed as per DU regulation) her Credit Point will be calculated by adding the aggregate % of marks as shown in the Mark sheet to her total marks.

Example 2 : Say, the candidate (Ref. Example 1) desires to offer Geography as Core.

Total Marks	=	315
Aggregate % of marks	=	380/5	= 76
Credit Point	=	315+76	= 391

Her position in the merit list of Geography Core will be determined by this Credit Point.

Calculation Procedure of Credit Point for admission into B.Sc. 1st Semester for the following Core subjects:

Major subject	Minimum requirement	Credit Point
Anthropology	HS (Sc.) with Anthropology HS (Sc.) without Anthropology	Total marks +% of marks in Anthropology Total marks + aggregate % of marks
Botany	HS (Sc.) with Biology & Chemistry	Total marks +% of marks in Biology
Chemistry	HS (Sc.) with Chemistry, Mathematics & Physics	Total marks +% of marks in Chemistry
Economics	HS(Sc.)
Geography	HS (Sc.) with Geography or HS (Sc.) without Geography	Total marks +% of marks in Geography Total marks +aggregate % of marks
Mathematics	HS with Mathematics	Total marks +% of marks in Mathematics
Physics	HS (Sc.) with Physics & Mathematics	Total marks +% of marks in Physics. Minimum marks in Mathematics must be 40%
Zoology	HS (Sc.) with Chemistry & Biology	Total marks +% of marks in Biology.

Note : Concerned department may specify from time to time the minimum % of marks required to be eligible for offering any particular subject.

B . For B.A.

% of marks in English +% of marks in MIL/Alt. English +% of marks in 1st Elective +% of marks in 2nd Elective +% of marks in 3rd Elective= Total marks. Credit Point= Total marks so arrived +% of marks of the subject which the candidate desires to offer as core.

Example 1 : Say, a candidate secured the following marks in HS out of 100 in each subject. English-70, Alt. English-75, Political Science-68, Economics-78, History-70 and Education-62.

The candidate has shown preference for English as core. The Credit Point of the candidate for English core will be calculated as follows:

Total Marks = 361

Credit Point = $361 + 70 = 431$

Her position in the merit list for English core will be determined by this Credit Point.

Note : In case the candidate desires to offer Core in a subject which he/she did not study in HS (provided DU regulation allows it), his/her Credit Point will be calculated as follows if nothing else is mentioned specifically :

Example 2 : Say, the candidate (Ref. Example 1) desires to offer Geography as Core.

Total Marks = 361 (Ref. Example 3)

Aggregate % of Marks = $361/5 = 72.2$

Credit Point = $361 + 72.2 = 433.2$

Her position in the merit list for Geography Core will be determined by this Credit Point.

Calculation Procedure of Credit Point for admission into BA 1st Semester for the Following Core Subjects:

Core Subject	Minimum requirement	Credit Point
Anthropology	HS with Anthropology or HS without Anthropology	Total marks +% of marks in Anthropology
Assamese	HS with Assamese MIL	Total marks + aggregate % of marks Total marks +% of marks in Assamese MIL/Advance Assamese (whichever is higher)
Economics	HS with Economics or HS without Economics but with Mathematic/Statistics	Total marks +% of marks in Economics
Education	HS with Education or HS without Education	Total marks +% of marks in Mathematics/ Statistics Total marks +% of marks in Education
English	HS (Arts/Sc.)	Total marks + aggregate % of marks
Geography	HS with Geography or HS without Geography	Total marks +% of marks in English Total marks +% of marks in Geography
Hindi	HS with Hindi MIL	Total marks + aggregate % of marks Total marks +% of marks in Hindi
History	HS with History or HS without History	Total marks +% of marks in History
Mathematics	HS with Mathematics	Total marks + aggregate % of marks Total marks +% of marks in Mathematics
Philosophy	HS with Logic or HS without Logic	Total marks +% of marks in Logic
Political Science	HS with Political Science or HS without Political Science	Total marks + aggregate % of marks Total marks +% of marks in Political Science
Home Science	HS with Home Science Or HS without Home Science	Total marks + aggregate % of marks Total marks +% of marks in Home Science Total marks + aggregate % of marks
